

Hopkinsville, Kentucky.

CHAS. M. MEACHAM, Editor.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 15, 1890.

HOPKINSVILLE, KENTUCKY.

A live and growing city of 8,000 inhabitants, situated in a county of 40,000. The Louisville and Nashville has two lines of railroad crossing the city. The largest tobacco growing county in the world. Wheat, corn, hay, coal, live stock and fruits produced for export in large quantities. The city has four banks with an aggregate capital of $450,000. A planing mill and wagon factory, three carriage factories, lime factory, tobacco manufactory, two foundries, three brickyards, broom factory, steam laundry, ice factory, two large flouring mills in the city and several in the county. Splendid driving park and race opera house. Five turnpikes centering in Hopkinsville. Building and Loan Association, Commercial Club, a telephone exchange, numbered streets and houses and city lighted by gas. Macadamized streets and brick sidewalks all over the city. Eleven churches, two colleges, a high school and the finest system of public schools, white and colored, in the State. Western Kentucky Lunatic Asylum with a population of 300, two miles east of the city. A fine, 600 room house with town clock in the dome. A fine fire department and a company of State Guards. Little River furnishes an adequate supply of water for all purposes. Low and steady charge. Fine opening for woolen mill, pork packing establishment, fruit canner, tannery and many other enterprises. Climate mild and invigorating and exceedingly healthy.

An oyster trust is the latest device for making the public shell out.

Since the carpet manufacturers have formed a combine, there will be no more sweeping reductions in prices.

The President has gone into seclusion to incubate ideas for his first message to Congress. Cut it short, Ben, cut it short.

Secretary Noble has declared Senator Manderson's pension re-rating to be illegal. He will be called upon to "dig" the $4,000 paid him by Tanner.

It is proposed to build a tower 2,000 feet high at the World's Fair in '92. There's nothing like giving our working men a fair chance to rise in the world.

Gilbert and Sullivan will turn loose another comic opera next month. Speaking of fresh things, when will the end man surprise us with a new joke?

As a result of the continued droughts, 100 families are reported to be in a starving condition in Ramsey county, Dakota. Begging committees have been organized.

England wants the United States to take possession of the Sandwich Islands. John Bull should know that Uncle Sam doesn't feed on Sandwiches. It is pie we are after.

A workman was literally roasted in a net work of live electric wires in New York Saturday. For once the headline could truthfully speak of "A Shocking Tragedy."

The announcement is made that the Pan-American delegates will be taken south during the winter, probably about January. Well after all it is very proper that the best should be saved till the last.

It took a Bowling Green young man a whole week to nerve himself up to marry an Elizabethan girl after the wedding day had arrived. She was an organist, which probably explains the matter.

The people of Dakota are great on home industries, while Dakota farmers are starving to death because they cannot make a living; and yet the election of a fool killer was overlooked in the heat of the late campaign for protection.

The dramatic performances in New York must be of a very exciting character this season. Last week the actor, Bishop dropped dead while playing and a night or two later, an old merchant named Lilly suffered a like fate while witnessing a play at one of the theatres.

Axtell, a young stallion, last week lowered the three-year-old trotting record of 2:13 3/4 to 2:12. The colt was, after this triumph, sold to Col. Jno. W. Conley, of Chicago, for $105,000, the highest price ever paid for a piece of horse flesh. Axtell will be wintered in California and next year will try to lower the 2:30 record of Mand S.

Gov. Buckner has appointed the following representatives from Kentucky to the Wheat Growers' Convention which meets in St. Louis, the 23d inst.:

State at Large—Hon. Cole Bassett, Owensboro; Hon. F. M. Clements, Marion; First district, Wm. H. Blair; Second district, Jas. B. Black; Third district, Wm. Cook; Fourth district, Wm. Sprigg; Fifth district, Richard Waters; Sixth district, Hon. Reuben Conner; Seventh district, Col. Jacob Graves; Eighth district, C. T. Armstrong; Ninth district, D. C. Frazee; Tenth district, J. H. Mason; Eleventh district, W. H. Downer.

The Great Brooklyn Tabernacle, of which Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage is pastor, was totally destroyed by fire at 2 o'clock yesterday morning. The loss is $150,000, covered by insurance. The building was dedicated in February, 1874. The seating capacity was 2,800, but the house has been too small to accommodate the crowds for several years. The fire forces Dr. Talmage to postpone his trip to the Holy Land on the 30th inst. The church will be rebuilt at once. The fire is supposed to have been started by electricity over the illuminating wires during a storm the evening before.

The Democrats achieved a signal victory in Nashville Thursday, electing their entire city ticket by 1,600 majority. The voting was done under the new Dutch law, modeled after the Australian system. This law requires the voter to go into a room alone and mark the names he desires to vote for, on an official ticket containing the names of all the candidates. In the recent election in Chattanooga the law was evaded by the use of a ticket like a "hand plant" is used in setting out tobacco. A voter would go into the room and prepare a Republican ticket but fail to put it in the box and bring it out with him. This would be given to a colored voter who would go in and get a blank ticket, vote the prepared one and bring out the blank one, which would be filled up for the next voter and so on. This scheme was worked all day before the Democrats "caught on." In the election in Nashville another plan was hit upon for instructing the ignorant voter. A tin tag was made which when spread upon the official ticket concealed all the names excepting those of the Republican candidates. The voters were instructed to work these exposed names. This "racket" was "tumbled to" early in the day and a stop put to it. The American says the new law, in spite of the efforts made to evade it, worked satisfactorily and is an entire success.

The very popular and progressive Democrats' Family Magazine published, ten years ago, when an International Exhibition was then talked of, a map of the identical site that has now been chosen by the New York Committee for the World's Fair of 1892. In the November number of this famous Magazine (just issued) this plan is reproduced, hand-colored, and on extra fine paper. Everybody should possess this number, if only for this feature. The same enterprise is shown throughout the entire Magazine. "Woman-Novels of America" contains some fine portraits of those with whose names and books we are so familiar. Fine illustrations constitute a feature of this Magazine; and in the November number there are over one hundred of them. It is certainly the cheapest $2.00 Magazine in the market. Published by W. Jennings Demorest, 15 East 14th Street, New York.

The following is a list of the officers elected at the Grand Knights Templar Conclave at Washington: Warren Lave Thomas, of Mayaville, Ky., Grand Generalissimo; R. Hendly Boy, of San Francisco, Cal., Grand Captain General; Henry Bates Stoddard, of Dryden, Tex., Grand Senior Warden; Nicholas Van Slyck, of Providence, R. I., Grand Junior Warden; H. Walter Linc, of Meriden, Conn., Grand Treasurer; and W. B. Isaacs, of Richmond, Va., Grand Recorder. It will be seen that Kentucky, as usual, captures first honors.

The following 26 counties voted against the constitutional convention: Adair, Allen, Ballard, Breathitt, Carlisle, Cumberland, Elmonson, Estill, Fleming, Graves, Grayson, Green, Hickman, Hopkins, Knott, Letcher, Livingston, Marshall, Martin, McCracken, Metcalf, Oldham, Pike, Powell, Rowan and Russell.

Chicago has absorbed one suburb after another until the city now covers 175 square miles and claims a population of more than a million. And yet 50 years ago there was not even a post office on the present site of the city.

Thos. L. Sullivan is the new Democratic mayor of Indianapolis. From the way he knocked out the Republican majority, he must be a relative of another distinguished gentleman of the same name.

The Messenger says the attendance at the Owensboro fair was the greatest on record, the crowd being estimated at from 10,000 to 12,000 each day. Owensboro has the best fair in Kentucky.

The Electrical Execution law of New York has been decided constitutional and murderer Kemmler is doomed to die by the new method.

Nutting, the sick Republican congressman in New York, has resigned receiving it is stated $75,000 to make way for an able-bodied partisan.

They are still finding dead bodies at Johnston's that have been buried under debris since May 31. Five were taken out last week.

Several cases of yellow fever have appeared at Key West, Fla., but it is too late in the season for "Yellow Jack" to do much harm.

The Marion Press says Hon. Jao Hendrick will be a candidate for Congress in the First District next year.

Catarh Can't Be Cured with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you have to take internal remedies. Hall's Catarh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surface. Hall's Catarh Cure is no quick medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in the country for years, and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonic known, combined with the best blood purifier, acting directly on the mucous surface. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing catarh. Send for testimonials free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Prop., Toledo, O. ### CROFTON.

CROFTON, Oct. 13.—Thos. J. Dulin and Miss Ednie Mills were married at the residence of the bride's father, near Olmstead, Ky., last Thursday, Oct. 10th. They arrived here Friday and were given a reception by the groom's father, John M. Dulin. They were accompanied home by Misses Mills and Holland. The groom is considered one of our best young men and the bride is a lady that any man might be proud to call his wife. We congratulate Tom upon winning such a prize and wish for them a future unmarred by disappointments.

Prof. Pitman, John Atkinson, Frank Prouse, Charlie Gray and wife went to Mrs. Mary Atkinson's Friday to attend a sorghum pulling. They report a delightful time.

Miss Henrie Stevens, of your city, was shaking hands with her old friends yesterday and soliciting orders for making life-size portraits in crayon. She met with great success here, getting thirteen orders.

Geo. Williams, col., disguised himself Friday and acted in a manical way in our town, frightening women and children. He was arrested and taxed $5 for what he called fun.

John H. Myers, of Earlinton, was in our town today.

Miss Leona Jamison and sister, of Evansville, Ind., are visiting Miss Birdie Johnson.

C. E. Mann, of Baker, Tenn., spent several days in our town this week.

BUCK.

TRIGG COUNTY.

ROARING SPRING, Ky., Oct. 12.—I notice in your paper that you have no correspondent from Roaring Spring, so I consider it my duty to let you hear from our little town, and surroundings.

Some of our friends were very much surprised on awaking last Monday morning to find that "Jack Frost" had been their unexpected visitor during the night, though in general the farmers were through cutting tobacco, if they did finish on the "Lord's Day." Most of the farmers at present are busy sowing wheat and we expect a full crop.

I am glad to say that we have a very flourishing school in our little town, which is taught by Mrs. M. Rascoe, who is known in this section as an excellent teacher.

A protracted meeting begins at the Christian church the fourth Sunday, and is to be conducted by Rev. W. E. Mobley.

Rev. Peters has resigned the pastorage of the M. E. church and Rev. Stubblefield has accepted the same.

We sincerely hope that some of the citizens of this vicinity will remember the meetings and try and attend, especially those who were in town Tuesday.

There is a young lady in this vicinity who owns one of the prettiest little gray horses, but as she is going to "Tennessee," she wishes to dispose of it. Now boys there's a chance for a keep sake—"the horse."

Auditor Hewitt's Circular.

STATE OF KENTUCKY, OFFICE AUDITOR OF PUBLIC ACCTS., FRANKFORT, Oct. 8, 1889.

To Sheriffs:

The law directs that six per cent. be added to all taxes remaining unpaid on the 1st day of November. Sheriffs should report on that day to this office the amount of taxes paid up to and including the 30th of October. They will then be charged at this office with six per cent on all taxes remaining unpaid, which taxes, with the six per cent. added, it is their duty to collect and pay into the Treasury on or before the 1st day of December. Failing to do so collect and pay in, another six per cent. is added by the law to be paid by the Sheriff. This is an entirely different per cent. from that charged the tax payer, which must be collected from the people, while this is charged to the Sheriff and must be paid by him into the Treasury, whether he collects it or not. The six per cent. added on the 1st of December cannot be collected from the people, but must be paid by the Sheriff as a penalty for failing to settle on or before the 1st of December.

This circular is sent out to avoid any misunderstanding on the part of Sheriffs serving their first term.

Very Truly,

FAYETTE HEWITT, Auditor.

Every Household

Should have Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It saves thousands of lives annually, and is peculiarly efficacious in Croup, Whooping Cough, and Sore Throat. "After an extensive practice of nearly one-third of a century, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is my cure for recent colds and coughs. I prescribe it, and believe it to be the very best expectorant now offered to the people."—Dr. John C. Lewis, Druggist, West Bridgewater, Pa.

"Some years ago Ayer's Cherry Pectoral cured me of asthma after the best medical skill had failed to give me relief. A few weeks since, being again a little troubled with the disease, I was promptly the same remedy. I gladly offer this testimony for the benefit of all similarly afflicted."—F. H. Hassler, Editor Argus, Table Rock, Neb.

"For children afflicted with colds, coughs, sore throat, or croup, I do not know of any remedy which will give more speedy relief than Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I have found it also, invaluable in cases of whooping cough."—D. M. Bryant, Chicago, Ill., Mass.

This Week's Plays.

The Jennie Holman Company will give four performances this week, beginning to-morrow evening. The company has a superb band and orchestra and gives some excellent comedy pieces. The opening play will be "Dad's Girl." The Clarksville Progress says: "Miss Holman and company appeared to a good house last night at the opera-house, in 'The Lightning Rod Agent,' and the piece was nicely given. Miss Holman as Vixie Vaughn was at her best and acted decidedly clever. She brought out the wit of the little girl to a good advantage and made it a strong character. Mr. Krause was in the play and kept the audience in uproars of laughter. He is a good comedian and makes many happy hits. The others were good and the play well given."

Call on F. L. Hancock if you have pension claims to be attended to. Over McPherson's office. Bring papers.

"Peterson's" Thanksgiving number is among the handsomest of the November magazines. The numerous illustrations are all excellent, from the beautiful steel-engraving to the double fashion-plate. The literary contents are exceptionally strong.

Frank Lee Benedict's serial is one of his best, and Alice Maud Ewell's "Wychem's Ordinary" is the finest and most dramatic of her productions. Howard Seely has a capital sketch, "A Thanksgiving in the Southwest," to which an illustrated story, "At Cross-Cut Farm," makes an admirable contrast. Address Peckers Magazine, 306 Chestnut street Philadelphia, Pa. A sample-copy will be sent to anyone desiring to get up a club.

A woman named Sallie Moon, one of the witnesses in the alleged rape case in which Pink Humphreys figured as defendant last week, was shot by some unknown party while standing in her door near the Eugene Mills Friday night. The gun which inflicted her wounds was loaded with small shot and she was pretty severely peppered about the lower part of her body. It was a cowardly deed and the perpetrators should be severely punished, but they are not known and are not likely to be caught. The woman thinks there were several of them.

Messrs. J. H. Durando & Co., have rented the store room adjoining McKee's grocery and will soon begin to put some life into the jewelry business. They are having the room nicely fitted up and will have their show cases ready by the middle of the week. They are enterprising and pushing young men, who understand their business. They will carry a complete stock of goods and will have one of the handsomest stores in the city.

Excellence of Grain, Perfection of Water, Expert Knowledge of all the best methods of Distillation, Extensive Experience, Abundant Capital, Complete and Expensive Equipment, and High Purpose, all these are used in the making of HARPER'S NESSON COUNTY, KY., WHISKY for which we have secured the sole agency.

EDMUNDSON & LONG,

Hopkinsville, Ky.

Bayless Gerhart and sister, Mrs. Tom Cross left Tuesday morning for Los Angeles, Cal., where Mr. Cross has been pleasantly located since last spring. We wish them much happiness and prosperity in their new home, but shall expect Bayless back soon for the girl he leaves behind.

Clarksville Chronicle.

Rev. E. C. Bomar, a young South Carolina minister, a student in the Louisville Seminary, preached two very interesting and earnest discourses at the Baptist church Sunday. His congregation at both services was large and attentive and the young divine made a very favorable impression.

Among the important cases to be tried at the present term of the Hopkins Circuit Court is the noted Gist murder case, in which Senator Voorhees made a speech at a former trial some years ago. There have been several trials, the last having been stopped by the sickness of a juror.

Boone Chappell, sent up from Hopkins for two years for cutting with intent to kill, has been pardoned by the Governor after serving half his time. He is dying with consumption and was brought home on a cot.

A JUDICIAL LAUGHER.

The Founder of a Profession Which Promises to Revolutionize Legal Methods.

"Mr. McGee, I suppose?" said a robust-looking man, with an ash of roses on nose and a big mouth, walking into the office of that well-known merchant, the other morning.

"You'll have to excuse me just now," said the business-man, snapping his watch; "I've got a big case to attend to in court this morning."

"Exactly!" said the stranger. "I need not on the calendar, so I called. Don't you want to engage me?"

"Are you a lawyer?"

"Grat Scott! No—I haven't sunk that low yet. I'm a legal chicaner."

"A what?"

"Why, a professional lawyer. I sort of cap all the jokes of my client's lawyer; don't you see? Exasperates the other side. Grapple with the idea, don't you?"

"Can't say I do, exactly."

"Well, I'll explain. You see there is nothing so effective in a jury trial as ridicule, satire and things. Well, it is also a singular fact that ninety-nine out of a hundred jurymen never see the point of a joke, no matter how plain it is; but they are always ready to chip in and follow up any one who starts a laugh—just like a flock of sheep."

"Yes, eh?"

"Yes, sir. Experience has proved that the large majority of mankind need to be told when to laugh. They have to be set in motion, so to speak, like a row of bricks."

"Yes; but—"

"But what has that to do with your case, eh? I'll tell you. You see, I sit in one of the front benches, where the jury can see me easily, and whenever your counsel cracks a joke and says something funny, or intended to be funny, I laugh like an end-man of a minstrel show, and pound with a big cane. Of course the jury joins in and the other side becomes perfectly furious."

"Makes 'em mad, eh?" said the merchant.

"Just breaks 'em all up. And the maddest thing I ever got, the more the jury and spectators are impressed in your favor. Why, in Skeggs vs. Skindler, last week, I actually laughed the plaintiff clear out of court."

"Did, eh?"

"Yes, sir. You see, when the opposition counsel try to be funny in my case, eh? I tell you. You see, I sit in one of the front benches, where the jury can see me easily, and whenever your counsel cracks a joke and says something funny, or intended to be funny, I laugh like an end-man of a minstrel show, and pound with a big cane. ### ALL READY.

The Outlook For a Successful Fair Very Fine.
Fine Weather and Big Crowds Promised.

Everything is in readiness for the Fair and the city is already attracting many visitors. The weather is delightful and if it continues so a tremendous crowd may be expected during the week.
The balloon ascension at one o'clock to-morrow with a parachute descent is something entirely new. It will draw a large crowd. It will be remembered that an increase of 10 cents will be added to the regular admission fee on this account to-morrow. The aeronaut, Prof. Hayden, will descend in his parachute from an altitude of a mile or more.
The races promise to be the best ever seen here. Among the horses men who already have stables on the grounds are Smith & Estes, Uniontown; Robt. Dixon, Henderson; Phil McCauley, Lafayetteville; Ind.; H. D. Baley, Owensboro; J. Hardy, Owensboro; J. N. Danby & Bro., Frankfort; Sam Fleming, Terre Haute, Ind.; Geo. Steele, Henderson; Alex. Oldham, and J. W. Thomas, Nashville.
About 30 horses are now here and fully 50 will be on hand.

An Explanatory Card.

EDITOR KENTUCKIAN:—Permit me to say through your paper that on the 25th of last month I was injured by a vicious horse, which for ten days rendered me unable to turn over in my bed. I have suffered intense bodily pain, am still suffering, having to this date no use whatever of my left arm. This affliction will render it necessary for me to call in (at least for the present) several engagements which I had for revival meetings. This I hope will be a sufficient explanation. I desire also to render my sincere thanks to those kind friends who promptly visited me in my affliction and to others who wrote me words of comfort, offering their sympathies and their prayers. In this world of affliction and suffering, when the dark clouds gather over us, to know that there are generous hearts in whose sympathies we share very much lightens the burdens of our souls. Next to the approving smiles of my Heavenly Father, do I appreciate the confidence and Christian love of the virtuous and the good.
A. W. MEACHAM.
Bellevue, Ky. Oct. 13th, 1889.

CREAM OF NEWS.

Shooting in Todd County.

A shooting affray occurred near Allegree, Todd county, Saturday evening, between Jim and Tom Rager on one side and Locke Powell on the other.
About a year ago Tom Rager eloped with Powell's 15-year-old daughter. Powell was violently opposed to the match but finally took the couple and set them up to house-keeping on a part of his farm. Recently Rager sold out his wife's furniture and sent her with a young baby to her father's. This brought on bad feelings and a few days ago Powell, who owns a mill, refused to grind some corn for Mari Rager, his son-in-law's uncle. Saturday Jim Rager, Mari's son, and Tom Rager went to Powell's house armed with guns. They found Powell some distance from the house and opened fire on him. Powell's son, a mere boy, saw his father in trouble and ran with a gun and pistol, with which the elder Powell returned fire. The brave boy was shot in the calf of the leg and had an artery cut and was reported in a critical condition yesterday. Mrs. Powell also ran to her husband during the fight and it is said one or more shots were fired at her. Powell thinks he hit one of the Ragers. Both of them retreated and have disappeared.

A Heavy Damage Suit.

Wm. Creek, through his attorneys, Brethitt & Johnson, has brought suit against Saunty Putnam, in the Common Pleas court, for $5,000 damages. The petition alleges that Putnam has basely slandered Creek's wife, a young woman to whom he was married about a year ago. That her character has been assailed and her chastity questioned in public in the vilest and most insulting language. The parties to the suit are both young men who live in the extreme north end of the county. The case promises to be sensational and will doubtless prove interesting to those who delight in seeing scandals exposed in court. Mr. Putnam has not engaged counsel yet, as the suit was only brought on last Saturday.

The Munford Murder Case.

The trial of Garrett Munford and five other negroes for the murder of Pike Radford, col., was begun yesterday before Justice Tinsley. The trial will probably occupy three or four days, as a large number of witnesses have been summoned. The defendants are represented by attorneys Bell, Forgy and Wood and Col. Brown is assisting the county attorney in the prosecution. Munford, the real murderer, has made a confession and it is doubtful whether the others were concerned in the crime. The trial is drawing large crowds, especially of colored people.

Pining For Liberty.

Quint Tyler, in for 10 months, Ike Griffin, 6 months, and Henry Weston, one year, the three workhouse prisoners, made an attempt to break jail Saturday night. They were in the lower back cell, which is not lined with iron, and when discovered by Jailer Long had cut a hole nine inches deep in the brick wall. Their tools were taken from them and their little scheme slipped in the bud. They had a hammer about 8 inches long, an old rasp, a mason's iron "point," a chisel and a steel blade or punch. Where they procured these instruments is still a mystery.
Another Barn Burned.
Eq. W. E. Wardfield lost a barn by fire some time ago. We failed to catch the item at the time, in a rush of other more important news. The barn contained 8,000 or 9,000 pounds of tobacco belonging to Walter Wardfield, Jr., and some share hands.

Mr. Elliott is a young gentleman of high character, handsome, popular and universally esteemed. His bride is one of the most captivating belles of a section of the country where pretty girls abound. She is a sister of Mr. R. E. Cooper, the warehouseman, and has frequently visited in this city. The ceremony was performed at the bride's home last evening, by Rev. Mr. Stubbledick.

On Tuesday last the Rev. Gorman of Princeton, in his beautiful and impressive manner, united the hearts and lives of two of Canton's most popular young people. The happy pair being Dr. J. O.
